GreenTech 2008: An Invitation to Join These Sponsors

We invite you to become a partner in GreenTech 2008, a premier showcase for smart young companies developing products that will transform the energy and eco marketplace within the next five years.

GreenTech provides a critical venue to hear new ideas emerging from innovators in leading academic institutions in Greater LA and to see fast-growth ventures backed by knowledgeable investors specializing in the cleantech industry. Your participation will help your organization assume a leadership position in the fast-growing cleantech business community, and foster intellectual exchange at the highest levels.

As a sponsor you will:

- ◆ Go on record as a driver of the GreenTech revolution in California, one of the most active energy economies in the nation
- ◆ Enjoy access to top academic and business entrepreneurs transforming innovative technologies into commercial reality in Southern California
- ◆ Connect with leading energy investors in California and beyond
- ◆ Receive extensive promotional exposure to business leaders throughout So California
